To whom it may concern,

It's my pleasure to have an opportunity to recommend our long term partner GEC.

GEC team has been working on development of a number of different scale projects for SOCAR Georgia Gas Distribution JSC and SOCAR Energy Georgia LLC. In particular, GEC worked on Cost-Benefit Analysis (CBA) of Development and Implementation of New Billing System for SOCAR Georgia Gas Distribution, Development of Operational Procedures, Financial Accounting Procedures, Web Portal, Quality Assurance of Implementation of the Gas Distribution Billing System, Business and Functional Requirements for Gas Distribution Billing System for SOCAR Georgia Gas Distribution JSC and Branding Strategy Development of SOCAR Energy Georgia LLC.

The working process with GEC team members was extremely valuable and comfortable. This team of consultants really know what they do and their solutions lead to long-term performance improvement. Thanks to their service, we optimized our operations model and accountability and improved our customer service.

If you are searching for quality, objective, trustful and reliable consulting services and hope to have a long-term collaboration, GEC is the best option for you. We are pleased to have an experience of working with such professionals.

I will gladly respond to any request for further information.

Sincerely,

Levan Gogodze
