To Whom It May Concern:

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is my pleasure to recommend GEC Developments Corporation to you.

In the period of August-December of 2014 GEC Development Corp's (GEC) was contracted by Deutsche Gesellschaft fur Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH in order to improve performance (effectiveness and efficiency) of Municipal Development Fund (MDF) of Ministry of Infrastructure and Regional Development of Georgia through implementing streamlined organizational structure and deploying management information system (MIS).

During the program, the GEC consulting team successfully accomplished certain tasks such as (a) Updated organizational structure of the fund (b) technical specification package for procurement of the MIS were offered, including business requirements, functional requirements and compliancy matrix, that nowadays are under handover process with MDF.

The above-mentioned services, implemented by GEC, deserve a very positive feedback from us. Consulting services provided by GEC have proven to be valuable to our organization. Consequently, we would be pleased to have any other opportunity to work with their team again.

I can confidently characterize GEC Developments team as solid and reliable consultants, support service providers and experts in their field. GEC's team members have solid experience and are efficient in their approach to assigned work. Their contribution to all areas of the project activity in which they had been involved has been much appreciated. Therefore, I would strongly recommend their services to companies looking for reliable and efficient consulting and support.

I would gladly answer any request for further information.
